Woodlawn Heritage Group will host a social evening to commemorate 165 years of the Post Office in Woodlawn. Sadly the Post Office closed permanently on Dec. 31st2018. All are welcome to join us on Saturday, 26th January in Ballymacward Hall at 8pm (after Mass). Refreshments will be served and it will be an opportunity to share memories of the Woodlawn Post office, which at one time was a central sorting centre, served by the mail train. There will also be an Exhibition entitled "Our Irish Women" that features a piece on May Creggs who had a shop at Woodlawn Train Station in bygone days.
