I hope you have noticed that a statue of the Sacred Heart has been erected in the graveyard beside the map of the burial plots. This statue was made by the late Gerry Shannon and donated for our graveyard by his wife Gillian to whom we extend a warm thank you. If it got some protection from the elements it would last for years. If there is anybody who would like to present something, I will gladly accept it. Otherwise, as I got a cheque for €250 from Dave & Anita Ferman a few months ago, I will use that for the statue cover.
