The Mother of Makura.

Sr. Mary Killeen has now spent 42 years teaching, establishing and managing schools and providing sustenance to the slum children in Nairobi, Kenya. Sr. Mary was born in Dublin but spent many summer holidays in Lusmagh with her father's family crossing the Shannon by boat to visit Meelick Church. In February she will be joined by a volunteer from our Parish who will teach in the schools, help in the orphanage and in the food clinics, visit the prisons and assist in the rehab of street children. You have an opportunity to lend your support by giving donations via the Parish Office.

For further information see posters at Church Porch.
