Reflection: In human history, the individuality/togetherness dichotomy can be seen in the contrasts presented by democracy and communism. Democracy emphasizes the rights of the individual, while communism emphasizes the rights of the group. Each society, perhaps as a direct result of its different emphases in resolving the individuality/togetherness problem, may have produced somewhat different problems in its society. Each, as well, may tend to amplify different assets of its people. - "Extraordinary Relationships", Roberta M. Gilbert. (1992).

This Sunday is the Solemnity of The Most Holy Trinity. The relationships in the Trinity are relationships of love. The reflection on this mystery today is not in terms of philosophy but of Christian living. The unity and harmony of life in the Trinity is to be the aim of each community. Where love is, there God is. God's revelation of this inner life is our salvation - a gift given in love. Our response can only be one of glory and praise.
