Reflection: Amazing Grace - Whereas religious faith must be something that is deeply personal, it must never be allowed to become a personal possession, however prized that possession might be. Salvation is not a commodity that we either possess or do not possess. In the imagery of another much-loved, if somewhat over-used, hymn 'Amazing Grace', grace is leading us home; we are on a journey with grace, it is not our possession. - Richard Clarke, Shouldering the Lamb, (Dublin: Dominican Publications) p.89.

Readings for this weekend: For Elijah, the Lord was not in the mighty wind but in the gentle breeze. Peter's faith fails in the face of the force of the wind on the sea, 'Lord! Save me' is a prayer for all in times of fear and opposition.
