Reflection: Homeless Crisis - Several international covenants have affirmed that housing is a "fundamental human right". But our Government has refused to use the words "human right", instead referring to housing as a "human requirement". The terminology is not semantic. "Rights" are enforceable in law, and the Government is adamant that it will not allow judges to tell it what to do. Instead, they delegate this basic right to the market, hoping developers, builders and landlords will deliver. It is time to call our housing and homeless crisis an emergency and introduce emergency actions. - Peter McVerry SJ, Reality, June 2018.

Readings this weekend: In the face of death Jesus says, 'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' Death is the consequence of sin, but Jesus has overcome sin and death. He undertook death for us to create the gateway to eternal life.

A thought: Golf is the infallible test. The man or woman who can go into a patch of rough alone, with the knowledge that only God is watching him, and play his ball where it lies, is the man or woman who will serve you faithfully and well. - PG Woodhouse.
