Reflection: Christ Comes Disguised as a Stranger - I saw a stranger yesterday/I put food for him in the eating place/drink in the drinking place/music for him in the listening place. And in the Holy Name of the Trinity/he blessed myself and my house/my possessions and my family. And the lark said as she sang/It is often, often, often/Christ comes disguised as a stranger. - Gareth Byrne, "Love One Another as I Have Loved You", Veritas, 2016. p. 34.

Readings this weekend: Ezechiel's mission is to people who have turned against God. They do not want to listen to what he says, but he reminds them that his words are the words of the Lord. Jesus is amazed at the lack of faith in those who would not accept him. Altar Ministry: We are still looking for some more help with the Altar Ministry in Ballydugan. If interested just sign your name to the appropriate month on the sheet on the noticeboard.

Sacristan(s): We invite you to consider volunteering to be a sacristan in St Andrew Church, Leitrim on Saturday evening at 6.30pm Mass. If interested please let me know. We can draw up a rota/schedule.

Online Theology Course: Study theology by distance learning, attend Saturday lectures in Tallaght or from your own home - why not join us this autumn? Register by September 25th by phoning 01-4048124 or email:
