Reflection: My Angel - Someone to talk to, someone to care. Someone to call to and they're always there. You might feel a presence, you might see a light, you might find a feather they dropped on their flight. they are always around, but not always on view, and that someone's an Angel, and you have one too. - Lena McGovern.

Readings this weekend: We can see clearly through the faith that has been given to us. 'The Lord has done great things for us'. We now have to help others to see the way, to guide them to the streams of living water.

The Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed: All Souls - The Church has always honoured and given great respect to the memory of the dead because 'it is a holy and a wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins'.

Mission Month: Why is 'Amazing Grace' such a popular song? The tune is good but the words speak to our human experience, being lost and blind, unable to see our way. the Gospel prayer of Bartimaeus is ours: Let me see again!
