Readings this Weekend: The Church was made manifest to the world on the day of Pentecost by the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The gift of the Spirit ushers in a new era in the dispensation of the mystery - the age of the Church, during which Christ manifests, makes present and communicates his work of salvation through the liturgy of his Church "until he comes". - CCC, 1076 The celebration of Pentecost brings an end to Eastertide. We return to Ordinary Time until Advent.

Blessing for Pentecost Sunday: Through the power of your Holy Spirit, bless our world with new hope. Through the power of your Holy Spirit bless our world with a renewed vision of justice and mercy. Through the power of your Holy Spirit bless our society with a sense of unity and willingness to serve the common good. Amen.
