Camogie huge congratulations to our senior ladies who overcame the Munster champions, Burgess-Duharra of Tipperary in the All Ireland Camogie Club Semi Final last Sunday in Banagher on a score of 0-10 to 0-9. As the scoreline suggests, this was a battle right to the bitter end. Played in sticky conditions, on a blustery day, there was not a lot of free flowing camogie on show but it gave the large crowd of spectators a display of passion, fight and a never say die attitude. With a whistle happy referee, it was all square at half time at 5 points apiece, the scores from both sides coming from frees. Sarsfields scores came from Niamh McGrath 0-4 and Siobhan McGrath 0-1. Sarsfields began the second half playing into the wind, but settled well into the game and produced their best camogie of the hour. Their defence came under severe pressure at times and were content to save a vital penalty near the end. Again it was tit for tat with the free taking until Siobhan McGrath got three super points from play and Rachel Murray popped up in the final minute to throw one over. A minute of injury time was played and again the defence had to dig deep to hold on to the slightest of margins for victory. Scorers for Sarsfields; Siobhan McGrath 0-5 (2f), Niamh McGrath 0-4 (4f), Rachel Murray 0-1. The All Ireland final is in Croke Park on Sunday 4th March. It will be a repeat of last years final against our old rivals Slaughtneil of Derry. Book your seat on the bus, it promises to be a good one!
